Dear Parents/Carers

I am writing regarding an important safeguarding concern that has come to our attention. We have been alerted that several titles in the popular children's book series, 'According to Humphrey', contain a weblink at the back of the book.

Unfortunately, this link has been compromised. Instead of taking readers to further information about the books, it now leads to material that is inappropriate and unsafe for children.

Please check any copies of 'According to Humphrey' books that your child may have access to at home.

- Look specifically at the back of the book for any web addresses.
- If you find the link, please do not allow your child to access it.
- If your child has already accessed the link, please speak to them about what they may have seen and offer reassurance.

If you discover any other compromised or concerning links in children's books, please let us know immediately.

We are checking all copies of the series in school and will remove or amend them as needed. Staff will speak to pupils about safe internet use and the importance of not visiting unknown web addresses.

If you have any concerns, please do not hesitate in contacting us.

Yours sincerely
